MAJOR DUTIES:

A physician in the Mental Health and Clinical Neurosciences Division is an independent care provider who is highly skilled in the management of patients with behavioral health problems. The physician will be board certified or board eligible in Psychiatry. The physician will carry a caseload and provide consultation to Mental Health and/or other clinical programs. The physician will work in one or more Mental Health programs located in the Portland metropolitan area or in other urban or rural areas in Oregon. The physician will supervise residents and fellows, engage in leadership activities, or develop medical services in the inpatient and/or outpatient arenas. The physician is an integral part of patient care, teaching and research activities, which are shared with Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU); as such, the physician must qualify for a faculty appointment with OHSU. There will be an expectation that the physician will have strong communication and/or team-building skills. The physician will report to the Chief of Psychiatry/Clinical Director of Mental Health and Clinical Neurosciences Division as well as to a Patient Care Line Manager.
